I. New Business (Actions May Be Taken)

- a. Discussion/update on ASCOM budget. Presentation by Jorge, Treasurer.

Sarah, Tino

Jorge- I subtracted the amount from last week's meeting. in the office supplies account we have 2,604.97. In the events account, we have 1,570. In the club's account, we have 1,645. In the departments account, we have 2884.09

- b. Discussion/action to approve NTE $400 from acct.#4500.04 (event supplies) for end of year ASCOM meeting. PRs to follow to reimburse Sadika/ASCOM's P-card. Presentation by Tea, ASCOM Co-Advisor.

Sabrina, Tea

Tea- this is for the end of the year semester celebration after the last ascom meeting.

Tshiamo- I spoke to Sadika and I am not sure that you spoke with Sadika because I spoke with her about having something else.

Tea- You should check your emails. Sadika and I talked about it and we decided to go with the original idea.

Motion to vote: Gio, Jorge

9-0-0

PASSES

- c. Discussion on things to order for the office. Presentation by Sarah, Secretary.

Sarah, Sabrina

Sarah- Gio said we need blue and clear tape. Does anyone have anything else to add to the order, especially so we can prepare our next board for success?

Tshiamo- Can we add sandwich boards? We need a stroller and also Sharpie markers.

Jorge- Scissors!

Sarah- Thanks, just make sure to send it to me before next Friday.

- d. Discussion on Equity Video. Presentation by Tea Perales, ASCOM Co-Advisor.

Sarah, Jorge

Tea- thanks, folks. We brought our first keynote speaker on Wednesday. This is a video that captures a bit of his story. He is an educator, advocate, and the first to appear on the NCAA.

Ryli presents the video.

Tea- thanks Ryli. Initial thoughts?

Gavi- I think its awesome you brought him to campus.

Tea- the chancellor's office gave the opportunity to give out grants to community colleges and we applied for it. Emily, are you willing to share a takeaway?

Emily- I went because my younger sibling is transgender. The speaker gave a good background. It was easy to empathize with him. I think he was very well-spoken.

Tea- are folks aware of the anti-trans laws in other states? Well, Schyler said that there are still anti-trans laws in place. What are some ways you can create inclusive programs or be an ally for others?

Ryli- Just listening to other people's stories. We can then take action to help them.

Tea- Also, the library after attending the program is ordering both of his books. They will be available at the COM library.

- e. Discussion/update on upcoming events. Presentation by ASCOM members.

Sabrina, Tino

Finals week

Tino- We put in a list of what to order. Sadika knows. We have everything listed too.

HPHM

Morgan- I think we're getting world wraps.

- f. Discussion/update on transition binders and peer evaluations. Presentation by Ryan, President.

Sabrina, Morgan

Gavi- as you all know, we have two things coming up. Peer evaluations are due next Friday.

Ryli- I submitted my peer reviews. They're due on May 3rd at 3 pm!

Morgan- I will do my peer evaluation and I haven't started the transition binder.

Jorge- I haven't done it. 50% of my transition binder is done.

Sabrina- I'm halfway done with peer evaluations.

The rest give an update on their completion.

Firstly, Nicole Cruz will be attending their next meeting on May 10th to discuss the formation of a committee. This committee, which will include faculty, staff, and students, will lead the efforts for land acknowledgment. They are seeking guidance and feedback on how to select members for this committee. Additionally, there's an opportunity to join the police advisory committee, which is currently in need of more members. If anyone is interested, they are encouraged to join. A quick shoutout is due to those who attended the Schuyler Bailar event; the turnout was appreciated, and it made a significant impact. Next Wednesday marks the last Women of Color Cafe for the season, led by Malaika. It promises to be a special session with gifts as they conclude the series. Looking ahead, Success Saturday is just a week away, with 240 students already signed up to participate. Lastly, our next meeting is also on May 10th, and they look forward to seeing participants there.

- XI. COMMUNITY HOUR COMMITTEE – TSHIAMO AND TINO:

They had an emergency meeting about funding. Please send in your events and if you need funding, it closes on May 2nd.
